

Replacement Note: When installing the replacement lower hard drive cable, first route the cable through the opening in the hard drive bay.

Then install the lower hard drive with the cable routed above the drive, and connect the cable to the drive as illustrated.

